Claim for personal tax credits - Form

VINNUMÁLA STOFNUN
FÆÐINGARORLOFSSJÓÐUR

In order to be able to claim your personal tax credits at the Maternity/Paternity Leave Fund, the below information must be provided at the latest on the 20th day of the particular month for which you wish to apply for childbirth leave.

Documentation may be returned to the e-mail address: faedingarorlof@vmst.is, and by post to Fæðingarorlofssjóður Strandgötu 1, 530 Hvammstanga - or to the nearest Vinnumálastofnun Service Centre.

- It is important that the parent provides the most recent information regarding the status of his or her personal tax credits in order to prevent exceeding the limits of the claim for personal tax credits. More informations on www.skattur.is

1. Claim for personal tax credits:

I would like to claim a % personal tax credit at the Maternity/Paternity Leave Fund during the period

The amount of my already claimed personal tax credits during the year is: ISK

2. Claim for accumulated personal tax credits:

I wish to claim my accumulated personal tax credits: ISK

3. Claim for personal tax credits for spouse:

I would like to claim a % personal tax credit for spouse for the period provided that we fulfil the requirements for joint taxation.

The amount of already claimed personal tax credits by spouse during the year is: ISK

I wish at the same time to claim the accumulated personal tax credit of spouse: ISK

4. Place and date:

5. Name and National ID number of claimant:

6. Signature and National ID number of the spouse if personal tax credits of the spouse are being claimed :

If the written information regarding the claimed personal tax credits is not consistent with the latest information from the Directorate of Inland Revenue service webpage, the limit of tax credit entitlements may be exceeded. The Directorate of Internal Revenue may in such instances ask that the Directorate of Labour cease temporarily to claim personal tax credits.

If there is a note attached to your personal tax credits claim statement, or to the claim of your spouse, it may be necessary for you to contact the Directorate of Internal Revenue to get further information on how to claim the personal tax credits.

By his or her signature, the claimant and the spouse (if applicable) affirms that the information provided here is consistent with information regarding the claim for personal tax credits as recorded by the Directorate of Internal Revenue.